Dedication

I dedicate this humble effort to my Sheikh, Muhiyus Sunnah Hadhrat Moulana Shah Abraarul Haqq Sahib رحمه الله, whose blessings and attention have made something of this helpless servant.

Appeal

People of all walks of life have been frequenting this helpless servant for a long time for du'aas and Ta'wezaat (amulets) and most of them have been parents coming for finding suitable matches for their daughters.

For the benefit of the public, I have collected all the practices and recitations for finding righteous matches that are found in the Qur'aan, the Ahadeeth, saints, my teachers and those that are found in the books of recitations and du'aas.

The primary condition for benefiting completely from these du'aas and recitations is to follow the Sunnah, to be sincere and to possess Taqwa. To achieve one's objectives, it is necessary for one not to regard these practices as the cause for making a difference, but should know that Allaah is the only One who alleviates difficulties and fulfils objectives.

It is Haraam to write or to touch the verses of the Qur'aan without wudhu and when doing so, one's intention must also be sincere. It is also necessary to avoid the whispering of Shaytaan and to turn to Allaah. There is greater hope of the practices being more successful if they are started on the first Thursday or Friday of the lunar month.

When reciting any Ta'weez, writing it down or filling in a diagram, it is absolutely necessary to be in the state of wudhu. The person reciting must also fix a place for doing so because the effect of the practice will diminish by moving from place to place. The place for performing salaah must also be fixed. When the Ta'weez has been used, it is necessary to bury it in a graveyard or in any other safe place.

The effect of the practices will also be greater if a person takes permission from this helpless servant before starting. There shall be no doubting the effectiveness if a person takes a vow to do something good like going for Hajj or Umrah or doing anything else according to one's means. Remember that fulfilling the vow afterwards is Waajib (compulsory). There is fear of one's efforts being wasted if one does not fulfil the above conditions.

I hope that this compilation will be of benefit to people and a means of perpetual Sadaqah on my behalf. I appeal to all readers to remember me in their du'aas.

Take Note:

Our pious predecessors have compiled many recitations and practices and Ta'weezaat (amulets) and whoever has used them has found much success, especially girls who had lost all hope of getting married. They now have homes and fulfilled lives.

Readers are free to meet me for further advice and are requested to make du'aa for me.
